The Next Legislature.

The Squate, as will be seen by our dispatches stands 24 Republicans to 12 Democrats, and the House 53 Republicans to 25 Democrats. Republican majority on joint ballot, 85.

The Official Canvoss in Crawford, Venange and Clarion Counties.

The following dispatch was received last even-MEADVILLE, Oct. 12.

The official canvass for Crawford, Clarion and Vennnge took place to-day-result as follows: Venango-Geary's majority 919; Finney's major-Glarlon-Clymer's majority 1,037; Me-Calmout's majority 1,058. Crawford gives Geary

From the above canvass it will be seen that the majority for Govry in this Congressional District so fur as ascertained, with Mercer county yet to hear from, is 1,627, and the majority for Finney

Last fall the Republican majority in Mercer county was 941. There was a larger popular vote in the recent contest than a year ago, and there have been large Republican gains in mos districts. It would, therefore, be within boundto colimate that the majority for Geary in the 20th Congressional District will exceed 2,200 and the amfority for Finney to approximate 2,000.

The New Railroad Depot at Titusville.

We are indebted to Capt. G. M. Lyons, the gentlemanly agent of the Oll Creek Railroad Telegraph for some particulars respecting the proposed passenger depor in this city. The new building will occupy the site of the late Morey House which has been removed to the adjacent corner of Mechanic street. It will have a front on Munroe street of 25 feet and a depth, extending parallel with Mechanic street and the track. floor will be 16 feet. The gentleman's room will front on Mouroe street, and its dimensions will be 25 or 30 feet. The ladies' room next adjoining, will be 25x24 feet. The ticket office will be a balf circle, with a window opening on the one shand with the gent's 100m and on the other late ludles room, the partition separating the two apartments dividing the bull chele by two ladles' room is to be divided into two parts, a indies' wash room and water closet.

Twelve feat cast of the new building will stend the present ticket office, which is to be converted into an American Express office and baggage room, and repaired and finished off in a style cornding to the new indiding. A platform It feet in width will extend all around the build the model of the one at Corry, with a projection 100f of four feet. It is believed that the premises will be ready for occupation in the course of next month. These improvements will be builted with satisfaction and will highly promote the convenience and comfort of the traveling pub-

The Prorogation of Congress. The great October contest is over, nevertheless we hear mutterings of thunder in the distance

The people accepted the issue proposed by the President and have overwhelmingly defeated like policy. That is - his present or past policy. But ho knows what he will next undertake to do? After the storm comes the calm, but now the or dimry rule seems to be reversed, for the clouds are gathering as for another tempest. There are symptoms of change in progress more desperate than anything the President has hitherto at tempted to do. The word "prorogue" has not had much force in American political literature It is not found in our Constitution nor in the body of our statutes. When therefore it is applied to our offairs, it must be with the meaning ordinarily attached to it in the country from whence we derive it. On the morning following the election the Philadelphia Daily News published an editorial with this caption: " Can the Presiden Prorogue Congress ?" On rending that article one is instantly reminded of the King's England and their repeated prorogation of Parliament. But why is this question asked? It must be remembered that the editor of that paper, Mr. J. R. Flankgan, is the Secretary of the National Union State Central Committee" and me of the leading spirits in the management of cept in this single fustance the President has no authority to interfere. Says Blackstone, Book 1, chapter 2: "An adjournment is no more than a continuance from one day to another, as the word haelf signifies." "A prorogation is the continu ance of the Parliament from one session to au-other." And further, "Both Houses are necesstrily prorougated at the same time, it not being a prorougation of the House of Lords, or Commons, the editor of the Dally News proceeds to argue the point as applied to the President and to Con-We quote the two first paragraphs of the article: "The events of the past twelve months have given rise to the discussion of many topics that have lither to been esteemed as among the forbidden subjects of newspaper discussion. The Radicals some time since hinded at the prospect of impending the President of the United States; now they advocate it, and declare it as one of their purposes, and this has given too to the ques Very cautionsly amounted is it not 2. The difference is just this. If Congress sees all to im-peach the President it has the constitutional right to do so, but if the President proceeds to earry out the scheme referred to, he must do it in violation of all law. The Sovereign of England has a legal right to "protonge" Parliment, but the President has no such right over Congress and the editor of the News knows this Accordingly, while disclaiming the power as a constitutional one, he undertakes to show that it "If" says he "It be right to take the nets of the present Congress as precedents the President would be justified in sending a body of troops to the capitol and accessing all the members of Congress, placing them in prison and carrying on the Government without their aid or Interference." After a while the article come ont still more boldly as follows: The question, therefore, which naturally arises is this: Woold the President be justified in temporarily necuming power not expressly granted by the Constitution

Congress have not the wisdom and produce necessary to sustain in orderly despotism. The leaders of the revolutionary faction denounce A section of six feet of the building cast of the the President because he teluses to violate the Constitution, in order to emble them to destroy it, and they could not with any shotow of toluss complain if he should not in disregard of its provisions, when his object is to prevent its itestruction." Is not that cool? But there is atili-more, "We know that President Johnson would be exceedingly reluctant to adopt any unconsti-tutional measures, and we do not believe that there exists an imporative necessity for any more neans the Constitution may be restored, and in mother article we will show how it may be done It present we will only remark that Thuddens Ste vens and a number of other persons violently ex cluding members of Congress from their seats, and acting in redation of the Constitution, cannot be legitimately regarded as the Congress of the Unit od States?

Is there no necessity for election true men in view of such intimations ?

The address sets forth that the publishers have already sunk $3,000 in the enterprise in evens of receipts—that they cannot afford to keep the pa-per going at that losing rate—that telegraphic reports, labor, paper and link are costly-that the small, is already larger than its paper, though patronage will justify. The article concludes as Titusville Letter to the Erle Dispatch.

The great contest so for as the old Keystimu State at least is concerned is over. The battle has been a well contested one and the issue manifully met, and so far as the old Keystimu State at least is concerned is over. The battle has been a well contested one and the issue manifully met, and so far so our megar returns show, a successful one and the surkes are driven crawling and wilthing lack to their holds again.

At the polls quiet and good order prevailed, which is certainly a good work for our young city and clean-indicates we are cleansed of a class of roof see so numerous bure. While we deprecate the action of a few almost alien eithered in a challenging indiscinnificately the rotes of some of the ablest residents it only good to show how fittle principle they possess and hielipanchant for intermediting.

We greet our sister cities of Northwestern Pennsylvania as a kepublican city but regget we cannot roll up a majority of more than 37. The third Ward shows to be Democratic by about 8 majority, a foregone conclusion however, in any meighburhood where the pig pen is in front of the house.

A hundsome, and well deserved and medited.

inajority, a foregone conclusion however, in any neighborhood where the pig pen is in front of the house. A brudsome, and well deserved and merited compliment to Jos. T. Clarse by his tellow-efficients is shown by his pill at home; a unijority of 150, thereby running diend of the regular tickut considerably and we hope his reputation as an Assembly mut may stand as heir as does his character as a clinear of politican.

The most graffyling occurrence of the campalgar took, place host exampg, at Corinthian Hall, where on cutiz us gathered, irrespective of party, to hear the results as they came by the graph. The political batchet was barled, the armost good feeling pravalled; congratulating and examples as peeches, sharp while-ins and scattling reportees were indulged in to the infinite annasement of the assambled crowd, now and then enlivened by the musle of Brown's excellent bond. Later in the evening Jos. T. Clarse in this about one hundred gentlemen, irrespective of her bond, a grant supage, and thus ended one of the most eventful days of our librory.

We are indebted to the Swordman's Club at Pithole for an highlion to a solve 10 be given on the evening of the 12th, and indefing from the preparations made and being made it is to be the gata party of the season and we hope to be there. However, should we be disappointed in our expectations, "Don't wall, but on with the dance."

Bountso House, Parmountain Century -- We ne glad to see that this ever popular hotel has een taken by that most thorough guntleman and efficient landford, Mr. "Sandy" Belding, formerly of the late Gody House at Shatler. Mr. B. having purchased this institution (into United States Hotel) has entirely remainded, refitted and refinuished it. The office has "changed sides," while the purlors, during room, kitchen, sleeping apartments and etectora have ungurgone an effective metamorphosis. A lifetime spent in for Mr. B. Between three and four thousand dolburs in additional furniture has been becordineed throughout the house, while print, paper, &c.

While the facetions and popular "Sandy" is ever on hand to alleviate the requirements of mests, the officers from the clerk down and porter up are also "thereabouts," willing and ready to do. His table and bar furniture are new and rich and the parties having them in charge have entered to a hungry and thirsty public as long that any less than par excellent could not issue from their hands. We notice with pleasure fint the attractions of ye landlord draweth magnetically. Long may be wave.

PERSONAULEUM MARKETS.

Tire:ribus, October 12 The crude Petroleum markets coefficie steady and dult no change in prices having taken place since our last, holders manifesting great indisposition to concede on present rates, claiming that they cannot afford to ower them; while on the other hand the eastern ope ators contend that they are too high to allow th margin whatever, therefore the transa margin whatever, therefore the transactions are realistical chiefly to supplying the wante of our refluence, of whom there are quite a large number, and if it was not for their being compalled to be in the market thing the operators would be figure and far between.

The Eastern markets remain very steady but dult and weak. A great many are inclined to believe that a reaction in prices is not fir distant; it is hoped there may be, but not attendant with such excitement as generally accompanies such an event after a full of so long duration as the present. It is possible that there may be a reaction for the better before long though it must be confessed that the indications at present are by no means unfouraging. If there was a light supply on the castern market, prices would doubtless advance, but as it is, the stock is heavy.

one of the leading spirits in the management of the leading spirits in the Monson Interest. In view of this fact the query proposed by the News Is very significant.

In England the King is the head of the Parliament and can prorouge that body at his pleasure. In the United States Congress is not called together by the President's writs. In England the King can prorouge Parliament or dissolve it and call a new one. In that country the power of prorogation has been often resorted to in order to defeat the popular will and sometimes for the purpose of governing without, legislatic restraints—as for example during the reigns of the Stuarts. The President can interfere with Congress in one case only, and that is, whenever there may be a dual lock upon the subject of an adjournment. In this case Art. 2, see, 3, says:

"If may, on extraordinary occasions, convense both Houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjourament, he may adjourn them to such a time as he may think proper." But adjourament is not prorogation by any means. Except in this single lustance the President has no authority to lutterfer. Says Blackstone, Book 1.

No socious higher occurred to any one, as the train was just leaving the station for Titusville.

A great deal of confusion and alarm provailed in the passenger car and frantic outeries of murder I fire I police! help! were heard on every hand which ended in a general laugh when they saw how slight the accident was. The biscited passengers climed back to their places. The car was soon righted and came on to the city in safety.
